Cain-MacKenzie Feud?

In the past several weeks stories in several daily newspapers have suggested that Rep. Fred F. Cain (D) of Wilmington and Senator Ronald C. MacKenzie (R), Burlington are feuding over a bill to allow the Tewksbury Airport to lease state-owned land, for an additional runway. The Town Crier presents herewith statements by both of the men, who represent Wilmington in the state Legislature.

By Rep. Fred F. Cain

I would like to clarify my position on this so-called 'feud' with Senator MacKenzie.

Until I read the issue of a daily newspaper which promulgated 'coolness' existing between Mr. MacKenzie and myself, I did not know of any, certainly none on my part.

We elective officials are sent to the Legislature by the people of our districts to enact legislation for the benefit of our constituents. To accomplish this, there has to be a cooperative effort on the part of all the legislators of the district. Since my election, I have always acted in this manner and in the best interest of all the people I represent.

When I filed legislation to allow the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to lease a portion of their land in Tewksbury to the Tew-Mac Airport, the matter was given a hearing on January 19th.

The Tewksbury Selectmen were informed of the hearing. Mr. Frank McArdle, Executive Secretary to the Board of Selectmen was instructed to appear at the hearing and record the Selectmen in favor. (Minutes of Tewksbury Selectmen's meeting, January 16, 1967)

Several members of the Tewksbury Town Government appeared at the hearing along with Representative Bocko, Senator MacKenzie, and Executive Secretary McArdle, and recorded themselves in favor of both House Bill 3817, (Recreational Bill), and House Bill 3819, (Airport Bill).

Both bills received a favorable report from the Committee on Public Health and in the legislative process were both engrossed by the House of Representatives, House Bill 3819 on April 27th, and House Bill 3817 on June 12th.

LET ME REPEAT both Tewksbury bills had already been accepted and passed by the House and sent to the Senate for concurrence prior to the time that Senator MacKenzie had the Airport Bill laid on the table. (Note: A bill laid on the Senate table can only be taken up again by the Senator who originally placed it on the table. Such bills usually die at the end of the legislative session.)

Legislative courtesy on the part of the Senator called upon him to notify me of his intention to lay the matter on the table. He had ample time to consult me if he had desired to do so.

He had already ascertained that the Tewksbury Selectmen were in favor of both bills as they, thru Mr. McArdle as well as Representative Bocko and himself, had appeared and recorded themselves in favor at the hearing of January 19th.

I fail to understand why the Senator is so intent on killing this bill as it is only permissive legislation authorizing the Department of Public Health to lease, IF THEY SO DESIRE, under such terms, conditions, and restrictions as the department may deem advisable.

To call your attention to what cooperation can accomplish for our district, I point to Woburn's withdrawal from the M.D.C., saving our citizens many thousands of dollars; the construction of a new Court House recently opened, and also the construction of a new Registry of Motor Vehicles Branch Office in Woburn.

Lack of cooperation on the part of Mr. MacKenzie will not personally hurt me or him, but will accomplish nothing for the people we represent

Fred F. Cain

By Senator Ronald C. MacKenzie

First of all, let there be no confusion whatsoever as to what transpired regarding the so-called feud between Representative Fred Cain and myself.

As the Senator from the 7th Middlesex District, which includes the Town of Tewksbury, I have an obligation and a responsibility to safeguard the interests of the people of Tewksbury, by whom I am elected, and to whom I am accountable. Rep. Cain is not accountable to Tewksbury.

Two bills, involving public (State Hospital) land in Tewksbury have been in the legislature. One would provide a playground for Tewksbury children. The other would provide additional land, on a lease basis, for the Tew-Mac airport, a privately owned corporation.

The rules of the Senate allow any senator to table any measure in his district, by a vote of the Senate, if he wants more time to study it. Tabling a measure does not necessarily 'kill' a bill, and measures are 'taken off the table' almost every day.

I tabled the Airport Bill, in my best judgement as to what was needed by Tewksbury. I can and perhaps will take it off the table in the future.

My desire, and the desire of the Selectmen, in a recently published letter, was that the other bill, for the playground, be passed first. I have never said that I was 'killing' the Tew-Mac Airport bill.

Following the tabling of the Tew-Mac Airport Bill by me, Representative Cain stormed over to the Senate and threatened to kill any future measure I might have, regardless of merit, if I didn't immediately take his bill from the table.

My position has always been one of independence. Neither the Ma-

THERE ARE NO MORE BARNs: So a pair of enterprising Barn Swallows have set up housekeeping under the eaves of the loading platform, at the Wilmington Post Office.

The nest is made of mud which mama and papa swallow brought in their beaks. Notice the row of mud spots, along the wall, where they seemingly tested the brick for holding qualities.

Majority Leader, nor the Minority Leader, nor anyone else, can tell me what to do.

Two days later House Speaker Davoren and Representative Cain killed one of my bills, which had had unanimous consent, in a favorable report from the Committee on Election Laws; had been engrossed in the Senate, and had passed its First Reading in the House. This bill sought to correct flagrant abuses regarding nomination papers for candidates seeking election to state office. It was, if I say so myself, a good bill, and was killed by a voice vote, with no debate.

If ever the Legislators complain about the bad image of the Legislature, it is abuses of office like this, detrimental to the public interest, which cause that image.

I will continue to support any legislation which I consider in the public interest, oppose any legislation which I feel is against the public interest, and will table any bill which I feel needs further attention.

I have seven Representatives in my Senatorial District, and there has been nothing but co-operation with the six other Representatives, three Democrats and three Republicans. When I am satisfied that the Tew-Mac Airport bill is satisfactory to the interests of the Town of Tewksbury I will remove it from the table, and not one minute before.

As far as a feud between Representative Cain and myself, for my part I acknowledge no such thing, and will continue to conduct myself as a State Senator who is concerned only with each issue as it comes before me.

Ronald C. MacKenzie

Frank Buote finally won that year supply of milk, from the Cumberland Farms. He lives at 148 Burlington Avenue. I was excited, until I saw the small print. It's one quart, three times a week - disappointment - heh?

Lee was the speaker, and gave a most interesting talk, which might be called Common Sense to a New Kiwanis Club, from an old timer. He has been a Kiwanian for 43 years - a charter member of the Westfield club.

Hayward Bliss, the president, on motion of the Board of Directors declared the Fourth Monday in June to be designated Lee Brow Day. Brow presented Bliss with an Adirondack Shillelah, and made him a member of that club.

Bliss had just received a new podium, from Div. 6 West, which was put to use immediately, and then he got the new shillelah! He should be able to keep the members in line!

Anyone wanting pictures of the Charter Night should see Charlie Bowman. He'll be carrying them for the next couple of weeks.

Okie's lunch is taking a well earned vacation. Between losing Rockie, and managing new help he has really been straight out for a while. But, no one seems to know if the famous Canoe Trip did or did not come to pass. How about it, Okie? Chitchat for the next few weeks maybe?

Helen Given, up on Mystic Ave. in North Wilmington received a telephone call from a Sgt. Pete Perzani, who had served with her son Bobby, in Viet Nam.

Pete called to say that Bobby is fine, and that he, Pete, will be visiting the Given's on Bobbie's birthday, which comes on July 9. Bobby will be 19 then.

Bob had written his mother and told her to expect a call from a great guy from Springfield, and it came true!

Helen reports that she was visiting with a friend of hers the other day, and the children were sending birthday cards to friends in Viet Nam. It sounds like a great idea.

Let's start with Bobby, folks. He will be 19 on July 9. Send them to Pfc Robert A Given Jr., RA 1277-31-41, C Co, 2/502 Inf, 1st Bde., 101 ABN Div. APO San Francisco

The Wilmington Summer School started yesterday, and will last until the week of August 16. It is a great opportunity for kids to make up work, or just plain get their confidence, by getting ahead themselves. Wilmington is lucky that the School Department recognizes the needs of the kids, this way. I hope that there are many of the young folks who are taking advantage of this.

We are all grieved to hear of the passing of Ariel Wood, up in Maine. Ariel was a remarkable person to all who knew him, or were touched by his life. He was a licensed Methodist Local Preacher for years, a teacher in the church and a Board member and Delegate to the conferences. Yet it wasn't what he did, but who he was that made us all admire and love him!

Wilmington was represented at his funeral services by Mr and Mrs Donald Hills, Mrs Carl Backman, Mrs Avis Hinman, Mrs Carl Blometh Jr, Mr and Mrs Minot Anderson, Mrs Grace Ball, Mrs Frances Madden and Mrs Bernard Bacon.

Mr and Mrs Tresi Muccini, Janice and Mark have moved from their home on Dell Drive to Everett I understand Mrs Muccini is going to try her hand at the Restaurant business. She has purchased a diner, and is really putting out some good food!

The Drum & Bugle Corps Competition is to be presented by the Wilmington Crusaders and Swordsmen Friday evening, July 14th.

Do you remember that old television commercial that showed a smiling announcer who was always 'protected by an invisible shield'? Well, it seems he actually stole that shield idea from a chicken we happen to know. You see, every egg that she or any one of her relatives lays has an invisible shield all its own. It's a natural inside coating that bars any harmful germs that might get through the shell.

And if you wash an egg, you're just injuring this protection and promoting deterioration within the egg. So remember, don't wash your eggs until they're hatched... or at least fried. Shell we say more?

Then there is the question, what comes first...? One thing that should come first in every household is preventive medication. See your friendly pharmacist at Silver Lake Pharmacy in Wilmington for our complete line of baby supplies, 24 hour film developing, and of course, we deliver your prescriptions free of charge. We are open from 9 AM to 10 PM daily.

THIS WEEK'S HOUSEHOLD HINT: If sprinkled clothes must stand longer than planned, store them in the refrigerator to prevent mildew. Do not store in the freezer.

If you should happen to get 'dried milk stains' on furniture, especially oak, first try just plain water. If that doesn't work, you can try working it over with Pumice Stone and rubbing oil.

lost in the opening round of another tourney to an old nemesis, Frank's T.V. of Dracut, 15-4. The industrial round-robin continues this week-end in Lowell.

Two years ago, Mike Holovak swapped a valuable number two draft choice for what he felt was the loop's best young arm in Eddie Wilson. Eddie then watched from the sidelines the whole season long as erratic Babe Parilli monopolized playing time. At year's end, Mike let Wilson go to Miami in the draft, replacing him with a 'better' John Huarte through another high draft deal. Huarte also spent a year plucking splinters from his hip pads as Babe ran the show. Now Mike again wants Wilson (disabled all last year with a bad knee). For what? Holovak would probably play that master of mediocrity, Parilli, over a Joe Namath. Weeb Ewbank took a chance with a kid with potential and it paid off handsomely. Wake up, Mike!

National Poly drubbed the Knights 18-5 with a powerful hitting attack to remain undefeated.

Jimmy Downs' Merri-Macs outlasted Diamond Crystal 13-12 and Valley News bested Sweetheart Plastics 11-9. Commissioner protompe Howie Lafaver predicts that playoffs WILL be held this year.

This is the last week to register for Pop Warner Football. Boys 9-13 may do so at the Little League concession stand.

After watching the Kansas City Athletics this past weekend, I think it's safe to say they won't win another game this season. They rival the Yankees in ineptitude.

After a 12-7 setback on Tuesday, the Mavericks out-hit North Reading for an 8-6 win behind Pat Moore. Jerry Land, currently flirting with a .400 batting average was the big noise with the stick, while Joe Langone made a spectacular going away grab of a pop fly and turned it into a game ending double play.

The Wildcats lost 4-3 Wednesday to the same North Reading outfit, but bounced back Saturday with a convincing 7-3 victory. Ron Topping and Ken Misells again shared the mound chores, and catcher Bobby Stewart again continued to show off his rifle arm by throwing out three would be pilferers of third base.

The showdown, however, came on the afternoon of July 4 as Warren Everett sent Ken Misells up against Pat Moore. The Wildcats' big right-hander proved too much for the Mavericks as he blanked them 4-0. The play of the game though was made by Maverick second baseman Tom Beaton, when he ranged behind second and made a diving stab of a hit ticketed for center. He then scrambled to his feet and nailed the runner at the plate.

In the Wakefield Softball League, the Surety Bankers won three more last week with Butch McFeeters twirling a three hitter in one and slashing a clutch triple in another. Dick Ethier's bat continues to sizzle with an average in the seven hundreds.

$125,000 bonus baby Bobby Guindon has decided that if at first you don't succeed, try pitching. The weak hitting first baseman has been hurling in relief for the Sox Pitts-filled affiliate.
